

Open Source Software Practices

Quiz #5

October 8 - 2009

Question #1

Reverse Engineering is

- A) An Exclusive Patent Right
- B) An Exclusive Copyright Right
- C) Industrial Espionage
- D) Stealing of Intellectual Property
- E) A Legal Right protected by Federal Laws when done on Items that you bought

Question #2

“All Products of the Mind” are

- A) Intellectual Property
- B) Patentable
- C) Copyrightable
- D) Excludable
- E) Not subject to property

Question #3

Thomas Jefferson stated that

- A) Ideas are not subject to property
- B) Copyright should last forever
- C) Not having patents is an embarrassment
- D) Ideas can be returned to their owner
- E) The English patent system was used by many other nations

Question #4

Thomas Jefferson stated that

- A) The Embarrassment of having an intellectual property system can only be justified when it benefits the public good.
- B) Not having a Patent system was embarrassing
- C) Only patents will promote inventions
- D) All products of the mind are Excludable
- E) Ideas are diminished when shared with others

Question #5

Thomas Babington Macaulay disagreed with the statement that a monopoly

- A) Make articles scarce
- B) Make articles dear
- C) Make articles bad
- D) Make articles inexpensive
- E) Is not Evil

Question #6

Which statement is NOT true about
The Sony Bono Copyright Term Extension Act

- A) Was lobbied by Disney Inc. in order to prevent Mickey Mouse from going in to the public domain
- B) Extended copyright for 20 years more over works that were already created.
- C) Was challenged by Lawrence Lessig before the Supreme Court
- D) Was argued against by seventeen economists, including several Nobel Laureates.
- E) Extended copyright term only for new works of art.

Question #7

John Locke

- A) Considered that copyright should last forever
- B) Was against monopolies, particularly in creative works
- C) Wrote that you should have the right to property even when there was not enough for everybody.
- D) Stated that Chicken can't own property
- E) Disagreed with you owning the fruit of your labor

Question #8

James Boyle did NOT state that

- A) Intellectual property is different from tangible property
- B) The public domain includes the privilege to excerpt short quotations in a review
- C) The public domain is material that is not covered by intellectual property rights.
- D) One difference between the “public domain” and the “commons” is the extent of restrictions on use
- E) The public domain is not the basis for our art, our science and our self-understanding.

Question #9

Information and Innovation are largely

- A) Rival and Excludable
- B) Non-Rival and Excludable
- C) Only Excludable from chicken
- D) Rival and Non-Excludable
- E) Non-Rival and Non-Excludable

Question #10

The Public Domain is

- A) Some gummy residue left behind when all the good stuff has been covered by property law.
- B) Is a very restricted minority of our culture.
- C) A concept supported only by Communists.
- D) The place we quarry the building blocks of our culture.
- E) An open area where you can grow chicken.

Open Source Software Practices

Quiz #5

October 8 - 2009

Question #1

Reverse Engineering is

- A) An Exclusive Patent Right
- B) An Exclusive Copyright Right
- C) Industrial Espionage
- D) Stealing of Intellectual Property
- E) A Legal Right protected by Federal Laws
when done on Items that you bought

Question #2

“All Products of the Mind” are

- A) Intellectual Property
- B) Patentable
- C) Copyrightable
- D) Excludable
- E) Not subject to property

Question #3

Thomas Jefferson stated that

- A) Ideas are not subject to property
- B) Copyright should last forever
- C) Not having patents is an embarrassment
- D) Ideas can be returned to their owner
- E) The English patent system was used by many other nations

Question #4

Thomas Jefferson stated that

- A) The Embarrassment of having an intellectual property system can only be justified when it benefits the public good.
- B) Not having a Patent system was embarrassing
- C) Only patents will promote inventions
- D) All products of the mind are Excludable
- E) Ideas are diminished when shared with others

Question #5

Thomas Babington Macaulay disagreed with the statement that a monopoly

- A) Make articles scarce
- B) Make articles dear
- C) Make articles bad
- D) Make articles inexpensive
- E) Is not Evil

Question #6

Which statement is NOT true about
The Sony Bono Copyright Term Extension Act

- A) Was lobbied by Disney Inc. in order to prevent Mickey Mouse from going in to the public domain
- B) Extended copyright for 20 years more over works that were already created.
- C) Was challenged by Lawrence Lessig before the Supreme Court
- D) Was argued against by seventeen economists, including several Nobel Laureates.
- E) Extended copyright term only for new works of art.

Question #7

John Locke

- A) Considered that copyright should last forever
- B) Was against monopolies, particularly in creative works
- C) Wrote that you should have the right to property even when there was not enough for everybody.
- D) Stated that Chicken can't own property
- E) Disagreed with you owning the fruit of your labor

Question #8

James Boyle did NOT state that

- A) Intellectual property is different from tangible property
- B) The public domain includes the privilege to excerpt short quotations in a review
- C) The public domain is material that is not covered by intellectual property rights.
- D) One difference between the “public domain” and the “commons” is the extent of restrictions on use
- E) The public domain is not the basis for our art, our science and our self-understanding.

Question #9

Information and Innovation are largely

- A) Rival and Excludable
- B) Non-Rival and Excludable
- C) Only Excludable from chicken
- D) Rival and Non-Excludable
- E) Non-Rival and Non-Excludable

Question #10

The Public Domain is

- A) Some gummy residue left behind when all the good stuff has been covered by property law.
- B) Is a very restricted minority of our culture.
- C) A concept supported only by Communists.
- D) The place we quarry the building blocks of our culture.
- E) An open area where you can grow chicken.